Those were the last words that she said to me
Be careful, be careful
I wouldn't listen I just drove away
In circles, in circles
And now I'm lying here beside the road
I'm sorry, I'm sorry too
We both need one
Day to repeat
To change what's wrong

You stay underwater
Sinking farther
You stay underwater
Rust and solder

All at one moment when the cold cuts in
I'm sinking, still sinking
And from the surface I see flashing lights
Red and blue, blue and red
Oh father won't you tell her that I said
I'm sorry, I'm sorry too
We both need one
Day to repeat
To change what's wrong
'Cause I've found

You stay underwater
Sinking farther
You stay underwater
Rust and solder

Taste the apple of my eye's rotten core
A taste we both deny but can't ignore
The fruit was safe and ripe picked from the tree
The snake's about to strike and I'll agree
The darkness in the deep, the damage done
The lights went out before when I was wrong

You stay underwater
Sinking farther
You stay underwater

Rust and solder

Underscore

So what for

It's all been

Said before

Underwater

Sinking farther

Here I go

Take the fall

This was all

Not your fault

Underwater

Rust and Solder
