Might have a million dollar mansion
Swimming pools and movie stars
Might be the most popular person
Everybody knows who you are
If all the things you hold,
Become the treasure of your heart
When the wind starts blowing,
It'll fall like a house of cards
When it all comes crashing down

CHORUS

When it all comes down
You gotta have love in it, gotta have faith in it
When the rain's knocking at your door
When it all comes down
You gotta have love in it, gotta have truth in it

If it's ever gonna stand the storm
When it all comes down, When it all comes down

We're not promised tomorrow, all we have is today
These are precious moments don't let them slip away
By putting all your trust in things that are built on sand
When the wind starts blowing, then you'll understand
When it all comes crashing down

Too many lives get buried, living in the temporary
