Reasoning is wrong
aside from anything that's rightly named Deniably insane. So lost, you're torn away
Your sympathy is strange, it's so unlike you still to be the same
Fight the urge to change and leave another day
It's not hard
It's not so complicated
To play it straight ahead it doesn't make it true
You're throwing your charm away
You turned into a scatterbrain
I don't know why, I don't know why
You're telling me it's all the same
By throwing all your charm away
Don't turn into a scatterbrain
I don't know why, I don't know why
You're telling me it's all the same
By throwing your charm away, don't turn into a scatterbrain
I don't know why, I don't know why, don't ask me why Lately you've been hard to find

You're hiding from what's left behind

You're falling into habits I don't understand

Crazy as it seems, I'm not sure it's what I don't believe

Afraid the day is gone before you start again
