I am lost in the see-thru,
Think you lost yourself too.
Throughout all of this confusion,
I hope I somehow get to you.
I practiced all the things I'd say,
To tell you how I feel,
And when I finally get my chance,
It all seems so surreal.
Cuz from the first time I saw you,
I only thought about you,
I didn't know you,
I wanted to hold onto
The things you'd never say to me.
Cuz you said:

CHORUS

You can't change the way you feel.
I could never do that, I could never do that
But you can't tell me this ain't real
Cuz this is rea.
And you would see right through that
And in the end it's all I've got

So I'm gonna hold on and on and on and on....

Now you've got me watchin' your eyes

Watchin' just to see, watchin' just to see

Got me waitin' just to see

If you ever look at me

If it goes the way it never will,

When will it go, will it ever go my way?

Your eyes are watchin' me.

And now you've got me thinkin' bout

The first time that I met you.

Standin' in a crowded room,

But I could only see you,

And I hope my words will get through

Cuz now I can't forget you.

I wanna tell you,

If only I could reach you,

And make you feel this way.

But you said:

CHORUS
