Do you remember the day
When I used to play
In the backyard
When life wasn't so hard?
But now times have changed
And we're not the same
Love inside ourselves
It all is still a game
But you're all grown up, not going anywhere
But it seems to me, that you don't seem to care
Still I got my chance to succeed
With my turn to play
Watch me be a star now
It's okay
Look at you now, struck by a star
Look no one's watching, go find out who you are
Look at you now, struck by a star
Look no one's watching, go find out who you are You're still the boy, i always took you for Everything's gone and still you were more
More of this life than you deserve

Where are all the tears

For the hearts you burn?

Look at you now, struck by a star

Look no one's watching, go find out who you are

Look at you now, struck by a star

Look no one's watching, go find out who you are

I don't remember that day

I never used to play

What backyard?

Life's never hard

Nothing has changed

We're the same
