Hold my hand and let me cut my heart away
Let it spill out onto the floor where you once stood
What else to say except:

I wont deny my heart is whole,
I wont deny I feel no pain
I deny everything but:

Tell me, hold me, destroy me
(Forgotten love)
Ruined and ruptured and beaten to nothing
All I can say is..
I cant deny my heart is whole
I cant deny i didnt find the pain you left
I deny that I'm ok without you

It's just like, wearing the wrong heart on your sleeve
Even I don't umderstand
So speak now before I shut down forever
And I'll hold my peace in your heart, without being..
Forgotten

I'm forgotten..
