No fire is too hot,
no snow is too cold.
Youth will never leave me,
I'll never grow old.
(No, no, no, no)

I feel free as a bird
flyin' around in the blue,
as long as, baby,
as long as I've got you.
(As long as I've got you)

If happiness was water,
I'd never run dry.
(ooooooooh)
If loneliness was a flower,
it would wither and die.
(Die, die, die, die)

The whole world is our private playground
to do what we wanna do,
as long as, baby,
as long as I've got you

Something to think about,
I remember when:
So tired of being hurt
and I didn't want a boyfriend.
(But now I have you baby)

I feel free as a bird
flying around in the blue,
as long as, baby
as long as I've got you.
(As long as I've got you
as long as I've got you
as long as I've got you)
