Pink toenails

Why don't I have time to paint pink toenails?

Iv'e got my pink foam curlers in my ponytail

My girlfriends have time for their pink toenails

Come nightfall

You'll be waltzing through my door when you hear me call

And I love the way you say I'm your baby doll

And you'll find me sittin' there in my pink toenails

Iv'e got my walkman and my cosmo

And my ticket to ride

All I need's my box of chocolates and you here by my side

Woah pink toenails

Why don't I have time to paint pink toenails?

Iv'e got my pink foam curlers in my ponytail

And my girlfriends have time for there pink toenails

You think your man don't care about perfume and powder

Polish and lipstick and lotion (lotion)

But when you slip your slippers on

And you rub him on the chin

When he looks down your leg
You're sure to see him grin at your pink toenails
He says honey come on over here
And give me somethin' sweet
Let me put my finishing touches on 'Cause I don't wanna' cuddle, snuggle, rub him on the feet
Till I have painted every little toenail pink Ooooh wrestle with me
You can mess up my hair
You can treat me like a tomboy
I love it I swear
Ooooh toenails
Why don't I have time to paint my toenails?
Toenails
Iv'e been drinking my whiskey from a holy rail
Holy rail
And we'll go to Disney Land and ride the monorail
Monorail
And if you're sweet I'll be your nightengale
Until the extinction of the spermwhale
Spermwhale
And live happily ever after just like Ro and Dale
Ro and Dale
