LaToya Mastinni
I wanna thank you for helping me organize the meeting, here, today

And Kelly Staraki I also want to thank you and all the other dawns of the four families

BeyoncÃ© Corion from the southwest LaTavia Ninza from the four fall

Our objective of this meeting today is to discuss Destiny's Child commandments of relationships

Ya know it's so unfortunate, so unnecessary for us to end up with broken hearts

Yes godfather
Time has changed relationships aren't like the old days, you know

See what we need is a man of his word
All this, uh, cheating, backstabbing, hating
No more, no more

But Godfather
How do we fold out his mishaps

It's obvious
The Writing's on the wall

Thou shall not hate
