Awake your heart
You fear it, but we'll make a start Seems like the wind just blows your way with clouds full of rain

And you hide... because the world ain't right Know that your cold and hurtin' soul is never alone

Don't waste your time
Just lift your mind
Imagination comes alive
Now you know that I'll be by your side

Chorus
Feel the risin' hope
and the sky will open
Take my hand, don't stall, have faith
Though the road is long,
There are golden gardens
at the sweet end of your trail
Lay down now, I'll ease your heart, erase your frown
To light up the darkness in your dreams
I will be here

And we'll find, the freedom you left behind Capture the sun, the source, it shone
You were never alone

Don't waste your time
uplift your mind
Imagination comes alive
Now you know that I'll be by your side

Chorus
Feel the risin' hope
and the sky will open
Take my hand, don't stall, have faith
Though the road is long,
There are golden gardens
at the sweet end of your trail
