verse 1

sitting here in the c-ly, i cross my knee cause you're lookin' at me , you like what you see, baby girl looks like you, she try to walk away
but you took a second look

chorus

what may look good to you, may not be good for you
,don't let my
smile decieve you, my body talk misleads you, you wanna talk to me forget it,you gotta keep it real i must admit it if you meant to gladden me you didn't i think you should know,
i think you should know

verse 2

do you need some company,you're asking me , i get up to leave , and you follow me,you're lookin at my butt[butt],and i'm wonderin' what [what]

chorus 2

what may look good to you may not be good for you don't let my smile
deceive you y body talk misleads you. you wanna talk to me i'm with it you gotta keep it real i must admit it you can go to jail if you try to hit it i think you should know i think you should know bridge
i can't deny i feel the vibe that's in the air feelin ecstasy if there is something there i need to warn you mister that you should be aware it's at your own risk baby if you take it there repeat chorus 1 ,2 untill fade
