[Verse 1 (Kiely):]

See I've been dealing with you for about 6 months
And I knew you had a girl but, we got to touching One thing to the next, I had this boy fienin? bout to make his girl his ex
He called me up late night love trippin?
Told him never leave the one you love for the one your hittin?
That?s a no no and I can't let you back in my bed
If you all twisted in the head and sh*t.

[Pre-Hook:]

Oh no o no no no no no the honeys dead fly
But your doing too much for me Oh no o no no no no don't get it twisted it's strictly business

[Hook (Adrienne):]

Don?t get caught up don?t get it twisted
Baby I aint yours. your catching feelings
Thought I'd let you know right from the go I ain?t the one for all that kissing, hugging, holding hands
It?s strictly business, go to work this chick don?t need a man.

[Verse 2 (Jessica):]

Let me tell you about this dude that I met once He was the cocky type to play the girls and have them all sprung Thought I was dumb tried to play me for a fool, wait till I flip the script on you.
Let him get a taste of my honey it's sexy, now he be trippin' calling me sexy
But I aint feelin it, I aint feeling him Cuz I knno he'll be sitting at home remembering.
What happened in the back of the rental When ever since then he's been messed up in the mental
But he will never get another chance at this though Don?t get it twisted it's strictly business.

[Hook 2x:]

Don?t get caught up don?t get it twisted
Baby I aint yours. your catching feelings
Thought I'd let you know right from the go
I ain?t the one for all that kissing, hugging, holding
hands
It?s strictly business, go to work this chick don?t need a man.

[Bridge (Adrienne):]

So I guess you didn?t understand from the start
That I?m the type of ghetto chick that don't give a what?
Got you wondering why I don?t give a damn Gotta let you know, strictly business man.

[Hook 2x:]

Don?t get caught up don?t get it twisted
Baby I aint yours. your catching feelings
Thought I'd let you know right from the go
I ain?t the one for all that kissing, hugging, holding
hands
It?s strictly business, go to work this chick don?t need a man.
