There is nothing like the cruel death can be.
there is more than solution from me, there is something stronger than myself.

Can I say, it's nothing to me, when I know, it's a bigger force, power when I want to ignore that

In the morning health, at the night illness,
what I feel, is this wrong?
Last minute, the colour black, next hour and I know I'm red should I dis.....

There is nothing like the cruel death can be.
there is more than solution from me,
there is something stronger than myself.

Can I say, it's nothing to me,
when I know, it's a bigger force, power
when I want to ignore that

Sugar meal, citro drink, what I Mean, is this wrong?
Oh high, may life down,
should I dis.....

If I would smile, if I would die, was she near by me once in a while, oh just to die, was she near by me Black or white, oh please survive, was she near by me When I had, had to go, would she stand by my side

There is nothing like the cruel death can be.
there is more than solution from me,
there is something stronger than myself.

Can I say, it's nothing to me,
when I know, it's a bigger force, power
when I want to ignore that
