I walk alone
Not because I'm lost
But beacause I want to

They call my name
They believe I'm scared
But the Depth is my friend

They can cathch me
try to thrill me
and posess me

They can loathe me
try to force me into changing Although thay know by heart that i will not Obey their rules

I do not stand for all I say Do I Face restistance will I turn away Close my eyes afraid to stay

But honesty is my plead Truth stands further in the need for my Honer i might bleed
