"Sacred Ground"

Visit "Sacred Ground" on MotoLyrics.com

Candles are casting shadows
They're dancing everywhere
walking down the aisle
Your eyes start to stare

These tears stain sacred ground
A soul was lost, but now it's found

If you give me your blessing
Then I will kiss your feet
Tell me, are you willing
To share my every need?

These tears stain sacred ground
A soul was lost, but now it's found

I recite those lines
Which I hold so dear
I cherish those words
Would you shatter them in fear?
When I light a candle
All becomes so clear
It burns up my hand
I want you here

These tears stain sacred ground
A soul was lost, but now it's found
