"Three Stages Of Being"

Ohm Ah Guru Namō Amīto Hum

Visualize the body
Translucent as a rainbow
The three stages of being
My spirit, a drop
I am a traveller to the pure lands
The channel, the path
Dharmakaya near my lord's heart
My destination

Scalp: Avalokiteshvara
Heart: Dharmakaya

The egg, The dome
Of white and oval light

May all creatures enjoy
The purity after the ritual
Spirit-drop, my heart, my soul
My body is like a bird
Spirit drops, into the core
Body dissolves in air
Drips and drops will drift
Fingers dissolve in water
Through all the lower doors
Closed and I reach
The pure land of the Buddha
