Little one don't be a fool
I'm a wreck when i look mighty
In euphoria i'm bruised
In confusion next i'm lightning
In complacence i am small
Through oblivion i charge
So follow my way
When i'm not leading anyone
Open and frayed
When you can see that i'm unsure
Out on my way
I'm only pure when i get lost
And you're only needing
When you're finding that i'm not
You're just looking for a boy
Bathed in infrared and sunlight
I'm all polish and reward
When i'm confident i'm hopeless
Just like everybody else
Right before they fall apart
So follow my way

When i am falling from your heart
When i'm in pain
Fever and sweet relief in one
Out on my way
Though i'm not worthy of your trust
Follow me down into a swan dive
All eyes closed tightly
Lowly, slowly now i know i like
Where you go when you're gone
Warm you hands inside my veins
I might be contagious
Through oblivion i charge
Follow my way
When i'm useless to your cause
When i derail
Calm in the patience of remorse
Out on my way
Out on my empty open nerves
