Tormented Life

(verse1) insanity may be just me. After it all took and stole away from me. Inside I wanna see these things the way they should really be.

(chorus) hatred burning into my past. anger forgotten slam it back. hold on tight as my life comes to a crash. all my pain i can't forget that.

(verse2) feeling tired anger draining me of my sanity. better get away bitch before i step up. better get away before i fuck you up.

(repeat chorus)

(bridge) Tormented, unlike you, you can survive through. Brought down by these little rich wannabe's. Its all me. No I'm not as good as you, Not as good as you, Not as good as you, I'm better than YOU.

(repeat chorus)
