As the sun sets,
Over the blood red sky,
I wonder where you are,
Every moment and I
Just wonder,
How did this come to be,
You said it was us always,
But then you forgot about me.

Oh, please tell me,
Why did we have to end,
What possessed us,
To be so cruel and send
Our love,
Back to where it began....

Chorus:
We could've taken the time,
But we did-not-let the beauty of us shine,
And now we are back to how it was before.
We Fell in love like no one else we knew,
But then something fell and
It-just-so-hap-pend you,
Decided to tear us apart,
I thought you loved me,
And it broke my heart.

The day you told me,
I was gonna tell you just how much I was Willing to give up,
It felt like you came from heaven above,
I didn't wanna listen,
I tore me apart inside.
But now I can handle it.
But I still love you so much....

Oh, please tell me,
Why did we have to end,
What possessed us,
To be so cruel and send
Our love,

Back to where it began....

Chorus:

We could've taken the time,
But we did-not-let the beauty of us shine,
And now we are back to how it was before.
We Fell in love like no one else we knew,
But then something fell and
It-just-so-hap-pend you,
Decided to tear us apart,
I thought you loved me,
And it broke my heart.

We could've taken the time.
We could've let our love shine.
But you had to tear us apart,
And along with it,
You broke my heart.
