Uh ha, ser-vice. Yeah.
See I'm spreading the word
Remaining unseen but heard
Around the world form the witness
What I deal wit, everyday
It's another form of war,
The government trying to put me behind the bar doors
Slangin cannabis just smashin' the seven-fo
Delivery man going door to door for doe
While raising the stash quote hollerin' Cyto" Dummies runnin' up when they don't know what they up against
You test this you fail
Regardless the cop reveals
Hitten' em like a SWAT team outta hell
Hungry for money to pay the bills
Feed and cloth my seed
I'm livin' just to see him live life comfortable
Not having to struggle wouldn't do dirt for bundles Stayin' humble with a lion's heart
Don't worry about me dog, I can play my part Switch the role meet them halfway with a double four Let him know
Around these parts, ain't no marks
Just crash men with various tools for building and destroying cats coming at me
With a pair of facts you niggas never learn
Seem to me you wanna be you
But can't be you
Cause curious monkey do
What stupid monkey sees

[The Grouch]

Sees (Seize) A moment...
Come from within and then
Polish
Call it a day and stay
Solid
The wallet will fill it will
I promise

Be honest you and through Trust time will tell there's no one better to know than self
Grow life like a rugan, then bask in the wealth
Though I'm askin' for help on the constant
I pull my power through my inner working content Forever never ignore your voice
Instinctive
Travels they lead and hoist
You up where
Politics cannot breath
Believe in
All that you stand to leave Behind is nothing
Ease your mind from suffering
And redefine what things are the norm if you can't and won't settle to conform
We maybe only born just once
In a rival of this new age has time,
Feeling like a crutch
And I can carve my own spot to rot Better yet rock I forgot to go jock yet recognize other ways
The place where my brother stays mentally waves
It's time to raise

Like thisss.

Mystifying

To the beat of the city I know the gist of way I'm

Here right now

On this occasion

For everything I've done so put down the gun mister officer

I just wanna sit down and talk to ya

Crime I've done but I was having fun at the time

Of trying to get mine

But you judging and bill stick bulging me trying to keep a nigga in line

But I walk the path that's spirals and turns, expands and intensifies

Idle concerns of survival, into a general concept

Like a muscle, my mind is in step, with my every jester

That's why when I see you, you don't see me

Pass by on my quest for the best tie Yes I, individual chose to live how I live and will continue to Power, I possess, personally
And you can probably tell after conversing with me
Knowledge is abundant all up in my noggin'
But you searchin' runnin' my tags, mad cause I ain't got shit

[Eligh]
Sometimes I feel something like shock wave in my spine
Half of the time it's when I'm dreamin'
it's deep without a conscience mind Mind constant pressures of structure they force my intuition
To adapt like I'm not with the bros, still fearful of the drier
But I got guys who strive along my side
At all time when I don't trust my mind as much as my heart
Or the stomach lock, depends on the risks you take Depends on the mix of the fate
You dealt deck but I had trouble shoot confusion with logic a little self respect And knowledge of outlicks on the outdoor travels and what I needed to hear
I know it's right for me and sometimes know it's right for you
Try to tell fools what to do, but if I know something I do
I feel the energy within contact so I trust my intuition that's the truth (that's the truth man)
