You said things would never change
You said things would be the same
But now look at who was right and now who is to blame
It's hard to keep it going'
After getting knocked down time and time again
Face buried in the ground
Will we ever win?

I cast my stone of hate at you
Look at what you've done

Even though you knew what it was like
You still deemed it necessary
To put us through it to
What is wrong with you?
This sinking ship can't take much more
It's almost washed up on the shore
Without our strong will to survive
We'd never stand a chance

I cast my stone of hate at you
Look at what you've done

If it came down to it
You'd step on us to get to the top
You say you care
But we know the truth
Just please make it stop
We will strive to do our best
To rise up above the rest
And no matter what you do
I'll always cast my stone of hate at you!
