Smoky afternoon light got the sun stuck in my eye it's shouting from the river then it leaps back in the sky

Prenons la mer sur les vagues solaires -- toi et moi parmi les esprits de la lumiere.

This morning in the past y'know i felt like broken glass now i'm feeling all right knife-sharp as a winter night

Prenons la mer...

J'ai reve que les abeilles etaient des gouttes de sang du soleil et au ciel des bombardiers pechaient pour nos ames irisees

Prenons la mer...
