"All About Love"

Its all about two kids, we were both so young.
But we needed love. Its in the songs we sung.
Its all about hurt, in the scars of our past.
And how we look to each other,
to wipe away the shadows cast. Wipe away the pain.

Its all about heartaches,
crying in your sleep.
Oh, when youre hurting so bad,
into my arms you leap. Being there for you.

Its all about love, its all about the heart.
Its all about the hopes we have,
that never fall apart.
Its all about life, the hours in the day.
Its all about dreams, that never slip away.

Its all about friends, how we understand.
When the times are tough,
how we meet them hand in hand.
Its all about forgiveness, for our human side.
and its all about respect , having never lied.
Its all about trust.

Its all about love,.(Chorus)

Its all about passion,
when I stare into your eyes.
when I hold you in my arms,
underneath the starry skies.
When were all alone. Its all about love
