Where were you when when I needed love?
Where were you when I was so lonely,
where were you when I needed love?

Hey, I remember love like it was yesterday,
when the scent of you carried me away,
We used to share the news across our morning cup of tea,
Hey, now were strangers flashed across the midnight
screen.

So hey, I was wondering if I misused your affection.
causing you to wander away from my direction.
It was clear that things were not same between you and me
Hey, its possible theres just too much emotional chemistry.

Hey, where were you
when I needed love?
Where were you when I was so lonely,
where were you when I needed love?

So, hey, I called you late last night just to break the ice.
We were the only two people at home, and that was nice.
You said Hi, its me and I said Hey, thats so cool.
You said, Stop calling me Hey, my name is Charlotte,
you fool.
You said, Stop calling me Hey, my name is Charlotte,
you fool.

Hey, where were you when I needed love?
Where were you when I was so lonely,
where were you when I needed love?
