Bobby Joe:

I wanna put on my ol puka pants,
and head on down to the sea.
Spend my days catching all them rays,
on the shores of Waikiki.

Frankie Joe:

And if by chance we should meet,
as you walk along the shore.
Ill offer you a flower lei,
and a song for evermore.

Meet me down by the ocean side
where the waters are so blue.
Weve got a date in paradise,
a little island rendezvous.

The Joe Brothers:

I wanna take you down to Hanauma Bay,
where the fishies go swimming by,
where the mynah bird sings his sweet melody,
as he sails through the tropical sky.

I wanna see you in a hula skirt,
as you wiggle to and fro
you can shake them coconuts,
while I pound on my old bongos.

Bob, Frank and Babs Joe:

I wanna love you in the moonlight,
as it sparkles in your eyes,
I wanna kiss you in a thousand ways,
my sweet bird of paradise.

Meet me down by the ocean side,
where the waters are so blue.
Weve got a date in paradise,
a little island rendezvous.
do-ya, do-ya rendezvous
