[Phase Fate]

Don't listen to me
Take your own word for it
Experience the world
Take the index yes and pull it out your head
Point that to the left fence
Dig yourself from the red
Yeah i know what you said
Thought this was the end
Ain't no use in pretendin'
Now i ain't gon' try to defend it
But fate's in your hands
It ain't the way that you planned it
But what's in a plan
But mistakes and let downs
Comin' up short and sit downs
You fall for it when they put the weight of the world
It's in your head to keep you sat at a desk
And happy with a slave's pay and some hours to rest
Come Monday you're thinkin' 'bout Saturday
Come Sunday you're thinkin' 'bout tomorrow again
Come birthdays, go to work days
Thinkin' 'bout 65 when its done
Now your life was a good run
But what have you done?
Raised kids to do the same that you choose
Follow idols and you follow the rules
Follow suits and you follow the skirts
All you found was a pile of dirt
But what's it worth?
Now consider this
Try livin' in the present
Now you can take that gift for granted, get it?
Just like your gramps said it
Ain't no past that'll weigh on my mind
Ain't no future, just a moment in time, its rhyme

[chorus]

We're going to a new place now
Take me there with your words

[Off Topic]

Who got that shit?

We got that shit

Dance to the bio attack

Dressed in plastic

Breathe real heavy til my lung collapses

Smoke ten packs and recycle the box, kid

I'm past it

Desensitized disasters

Grew til I died from youth

Aging backwards

My mother's heartbeat is the drum track for madness

My womb's a booth

Soundproofed and foam padded

Take what you know be and count backwards

Trace the roots back to seed and find answers

Trace the seed back to tree and find out

Why you believe what you believe to be about

I speak to the Gods you think you know

I fought with the devils you're working for

They back down then they come back 'round for more

Sit motionless, focused, wage the war

Protect the mind

With acoustic symbol rhymes

Derived from a simpler time

Redefined

Outwardly calm

A body at rest

Control the controls

Then train for the test

And I'll meet you

Our people move as one

A new age of our history has begun

I can teach you

But you got a razor tongue

Let go

Let go and be free for once

[chorus]

We're going to a new place now

Take me there with your words

[Off Topic]

I'm drifting, farther than you can count

Inwards, til I might not make it out

And if the silence weighs heavy on your mind

Then you're deaf to the noises inside
