Written by M. Masser & G. Goffin

When I wake up each morning trying to find myself

And if I'm ever the least unsure

I always remind myself

Though your someone in this world that I'll always choose to love

From now on you're only someone that I used to love

As for me it's getting down to the last unspoken part

When you must begin to ease the pain of a broken heart

Tell me why should I even care if I have to lose your love

From now on you're only someone that I used to love

Wish it was enough for you

All the love I had to give

I did my best to keep you satisfied

I guess you'll never know how much I tried

I really tried

And if ever our paths should cross again

Well, you won't find me being the one to get lost again

Once I had so much to give but you just refused my
love

From now on you're only someone that I used to love

Musical Interlude

I did my best to keep you satisfied

I guess you'll never know how much I tried

I really tried

When I wake up each morning trying to find myself

And if I'm ever the least unsure I always remind myself

Though you're someone in this world that I'll always
choose to love

From now on you're only someone that I used to love

From now on you're only someone that I used to love

Though you're someone in this world that I'll always
choose to love

From now on you're only someone that I used to love

Hmm, from now on you're only someone that I used to love
