Sometimes I sit and think of you
ohh
Sometimes I know I play the fool Sometimes I know that you are alone
ohh
Sometimes I know you wait by the phone ohhh but I can't love any more than you can hate and i'll always be your second string
I'm just not good enough
Good enough for you
I'm just not good enough
but then again, neither are you Sometimes I try to shoot for the moon
ohh
Sometimes I know I give up too soon Sometimes I think that I can be strong
ohh
Sometimes I try to play along Ohh but I can't love
Any more than I can hate
And i'll always be your second string
I'm just not good enough
Good enough for you
I'm just not good enough
but then again, neither are you Repeat chorus
