Be yourself
Be yourself so you won't fade out
Keep yourself
Keep yourself so you won't change at all

Anyone in a crowd
Sees you fail to leave a definite scar
Don't you hold back now

See yourself
See yourself as one turned 'round
Free yourself
Free yourself or turn back now

Everyone in the crowd
Seems to think you're the greatest of all...
What if they found out?

Anything that you say
I don't know about it
What you see what you're sayin'
Just doesn't matter
Anymore

Leave yourself
Leave yourself time to get it right
Keep yourself
Be yourself make the red hot white

Don't you hold back now
Everyone's full of sparkle and charm
How can you bow out?
