"Hey Wow"

Is the sun out,
Has the wind died,
Or is this stillness here the calm between my ears?
And i know now why they put me here.

Things were clear once
'til the clouds came,
Now i don't know when they'll fall--
No, i couldn't say at all.
And i know now why they've kept me here.

I've been paralyzed by a choice that lies
Well inside of me--
Which world to hold me now
And i believe i'm drifting...

Hey, the mist surrounds me more and more
Hey, wow. it swirls and it rains here.
Hey wow. and i have known this all before.
Hey wow. and nothing's very...

Are the stars out,
Is the sun down,
Or is the darkness here the calm between my ears?
And i know now why the've left me here.

I've been mesmerized by a voice that cries
Well inside of me
Too loud to hold it down.
And i believe i'm drifting...

Hey, the mist surrounds me more and more.
Hey, wow. it swirls and it rains here.
Hey wow. and i have known this all before.
Hey wow. and nothing's very clear.
