18 and feeling out of place frustrated that she cant relate

Knee deep in diaillusion of her mental state

In time you will learn to stand up on your feet

Cause only in the movies can you replay every scene

Until it comes out clean

Move to a lower east side dorm she's got no friends to call her own

Still I cant get used to living far away from home

So bored to death of being bored ambition seems to go ignored

Her disposition is decaying at the core

In time you will learn to stand up on your feet

Cause only in the movies can you replay every scene

Until it comes out clean

All the things are good and some are bad

Its really what you make of it

You re locked inside a world that's planned out just for you
