someone like you is rare

you're not afraid to care

Always say how you feel that's part of your appeal we've shared some special times i'm glad that you are mine

You showed me a better way it's a shame you couldn't stay

rise:

i wish the miles between us could only disappear but until that day i'll just hold back the tears

chorus:

imagining you right here with me thinking of all that could be imagining your gentle touch i'm missing you ohh so much my imagination's running right out of control i'm missing you more than you could know you show such tenderness i feel that i've been blessed we've got a chemistry

that feels so right to me i know you always said it had to be like that but sometimes i feel like i'm going out of my mind

bridge:

i know for now that we're gonna have to wait the rest we're gonna have to leave to fate it won't be long before you're right here with me

'cause it's our destiny baby chorus 3x
