

40 Days "I Run"

Visit "I Run" on MotoLyrics.com

I've never had a day like this,
When things become so clear
I can feel you here

I've never had to pray like this
It's all that I can do
To see me through the fear

But when my faith begins to fail me,
And I can't find my way

I run, I fall into the arms of my Father,
Into a Love like no other
I walk, I crawl
It doesn't matter how I get here
Only that I can be here at all

All that seems to cloud my mind,
Is how can be I strong
And how do I move on

But I know You will never fail me,
You will be my way

I will call upon You,
Lord You are worthy to be praised, so shall I be saved
