[Kanye West] Okay, G.O.O.D. Music has arrived You and your girls can finally get live I'ma need you to turn the lights down Whatever gon happen gon happen right now Do whatever you want Whatever you want [Consequence] Baby let me get the number to your blackberry curve So I can buy you everything that you deserve I ain't gotta front mama that's my word With that kinda ass I might spaz like N.E.R.D. And buy whatever you want Whatever you want [Kanye West] Now I need you to leave home any inhibitions I promise you, won't be any intermissions What's up with your home girl, I'm so persistent We need an assistant, I'm just kidding Whatever you want Whatever you want [Consequence] The number one team is back it ain't fair And if you feel the same, raise you glass in the air I like the pack Jordans that come with the wack pair Y'all really don't want it and we're making that clear So do whatever you want Put you hands in the air Wave them around like you just don't care And once you're done with that, keep your hands up high If you're with your girls let me see you get live And whatever you want [Chorus: John Legend] Hey girl, we gon live it up tonight Hey girl, welcome to the Grammy life Hey girl, you know how this goes if you all, centerfolds, is all I know Whatever you want [Kanye West] Now when everybody way too aggressive I'ma be the one to cool to even stress it Even though I bought dresses, breasts, Benz's, Lexus Yeah, you get the message Whatever you want Whatever you want [Consequence] So don't be shy baby pick a handbag And the shoes to match that'll really get them mad And don't worry about it cause I'm picking up the tab Cause nothing gets the girls like a little bit of cash Or whatever they want [Chorus]
