never thought i'd say i'm sorry never thought i'd be the one to bring you down now when i look out my window but there doesnt seem to be anyone around and i i think i'll change my ways so all your words get noticed tomorrows a brand new day tomorrows a new day

we said we'd take a little time for both of us to see i wonder what it'd be like to carry on yeah i know i got crazy well i guess thats just me if i could turn back time before the wrong

and i

and i

never thought i'd be the one
