Before I lost everything I ever had, I had nothing.
In the time I killed my pride, a severed hand slapped my face.
I don't pity the weak just because they don't come through for me.
The time you waged and lost has no guarantee.

{Chorus}

Serenity Reigns
Mourn the time you lost and you'll lose everything
Serenity Reigns
Mourn the time you got and you'll be through with me
We'll just wait and see
By the time I reach you, you will be one step ahead Cheating ways that represent the space where we all will dance
Soap opera blunders, caught under covers
So filled with cold happiness,
Overjoyed through these meager times

{Chorus}

This darkness waits
I can see your fears that bleed
You can't hide. You can hide from me
I'm not waiting for you
