Little one don't be a fool, I'm a wreck when I look mighty

In euphoria I'm bruised, in confusion next I'm lightning

In complacency I am small, through oblivion I charge

So follow my way

When I'm not leading anyone

Open and frayed

When you can see that I'm unsure

Out on my way

I'm only pure when I get lost

And you're only needing, when you're finding that I'm not

You're just looking for a boy, bathed in infrared and sunlight

I'm all polish and reward, when I'm confident I'm hopeless

Just like everybody else, right before they fall apart

So follow my way

When I am falling from your heart

When I'm the pain

Fever and sweet relief in one

Out on my way

Though I'm not worthy of your trust, follow me down into a swan dive

All eyes closed tightly

Lowly, slowly now I know I like where you go when you're gone

Warm your hands inside my veins, I might be contagious

Through oblivion I charge

Follow my way

When I'm useless to your cause

When I derail

Calm in the patience of remorse

Out on my way

Out on my empty open nerves

When all you know

Is that I don't know where we are

When all you know

Is that I don't know

Follow my way
