I'm wondering why I am here now?
Though the diamond dust is shining bright,
day after day I'm searching for the aim of my being and keeping body and soul together
Someone tell me what to do in future
Someone tell me where to go in future
The hands of time keep ticking away the minutes, and it shaves me of my life

Oh...There's a time to love, there's a time to hate
"Diesen Liebe, Der Welt !"
I'm gazing at the Northern lights and trying not to cry
"Diesen Liebe, Der Welt !"

The Northern Lights - It's the bright rainbow
The Northern Lights - It shines everything
The Northern Lights - In the starly night
Eternal glory ! The Northern Lights...

I'm wondering What I was born for?
I'm wondering what I can say?
Day by day I lose my zest for be alive, but I have an eagerness for life still
The life is no exit labyrinth
if so how I went into this life?
The wind of time keep blowing through me with the sorrows, and it robs me of memories

So I shout at the top of my lungs !
"Diesen Liebe, Der Welt !"
Oh Lord ! Man may live for the love, man may die for the love.
"Diesen Liebe, Der Welt !"

The Northern Lights - It's the bright rainbow
The Northern Lights - It shines everything
The Northern Lights - In the starly night
Eternal glory ! The Northern Lights...

The Northern Lights is waving tender...
It has watched all with the angel.
The Northern Lights...!!!

For all living, I will open the "Gate of Hope"...(The words from an ancient sage)

Man cannot be able to hate
the others heartily after all
There's a "Gate Of Hope" together with The Northern Lights
It is supposed to be still enough ! Now, still !!!
Heaven can wait cuz we are alive now !
The Northern Lights knows every thing.
I don't mind that everything is a lie,
as long as you love me forever...
The Northern Lights ! The Northern Lights !
The Northern Lights ! Shine for us all...!!!

...The "Gate of Hope" is opened
I don't have regret any more...
Now I can believe that we were born to search for something which only we can do under The Northern Lights...! (The words from an ancient sage)
