You are standing here as true as you were born on this earth.

Don't pin all your hopes and your dreams on somebody else's lives.

The Southern cross is twinkling and watching us.

Far beyond, so far away from us.

The Southern Cross is a holy light.

We are the crusaders of the Southern Cross.

Go, if you come up against a hurdle.

Fight, fight for the things you believe in.

Passion, Joy, Sorrow, pain and tears.

All they will be pabulum of your life.

Go, if you come under the wet yourself.

Fight, fight for the person you believe in.

Destiny is calling you...

???Obey me, or defy me???

The Southern cross is twinkling and watching us.

Far beyond, so far away from us.

The Southern Cross is a holy light.

We are the crusaders of the Southern Cross.

Go, if you come up against a hurdle.

Fight, fight for the things you believe in.

Passion, Joy, Sorrow, pain and tears.

All they will be pabulum of your life.

Go, if you come under the wet yourself.

Fight, fight for the person you believe in.

Destiny is calling you...

???Obey me, or defy me???

Is there a thing which is superior to love in this world?

A man is living with loving someone and then being loved by others.

We are standing here as true as we were born on this earth.

The moment of yesterday when we lived is never waste.

Go, if you come up against a hurdle.
Fight, fight for the things you believe in.
Passion, Joy, Sorrow, pain and tears.
All they will be pabulum of your life.
Go, if you come under the wet yourself.
Fight, fight for the person you believe in.
Destiny is calling you...
???Obey me, or defy me???

This little time that you live here
may be treasure when you are old.
Go, if you come away from your way.
Find, find your own way that you believe in.
Destiny is challenging you...
???Obey me, or defy me???

We cannot turn back to our past.
We cannot change our past.
However, we're heading for the future.
So, let us reach out our hands.....our hands!
