Temptation to kill again

The sensation comes over me

An addiction to murdering

I can't stop killing

You tried to stop me

Dead, before you started

Put me away

Before I put another

In the grave

Pulverized

Knocked down it came up behind me

In the dark

Overwhelmed, I feel life slip from me

This isn't happening, pulverized

I won't sustain these injuries

Pick up the pieces of me

Temptation to kill again

The sensation comes over me

An addiction to murdering

I can't stop killing

You tried to stop me

Dead, before you started

Put me away

Before I put another

In the grave

Pulverized

Knocked down it came up behind me

In the dark

Overwhelmed, I feel life slip from me

This isn't happening, pulverized

I won't sustain these injuries

Pick up the pieces of me

Temptation to kill

The sensation comes over me

An addiction to murdering

I can't stop killing

You tried to stop me

Dead, before you started

Put me away

Before I put another

In the grave

Pulverized

Knocked down it came up behind me

In the dark

Overwhelmed, I feel life slip from me

This isn't happening, pulverized

I won't sustain these injuries

Pick up the pieces of me

An addiction to murdering

I can't stop killing
