Undead feast, as they tear upon your weak flesh
Terror builds, as the thought of being dead
Prophecy of the wisemen of old
Now comes true, as the corpses break the soil
Ancient spell breaks the sleep of the dead
The dead awake, what the populace is fearing Panic strikes as the nations run in fear
Oceans boil with blood of human victims Suicide, the only way to avoid being eaten by the undead
Grave yards coming alive with zombies, hungry for living flesh
Psychotic, transmuted corpses, upsurging the population
Sickening disaster of epidemic proportions, devouring us
Tables turn as a victim I've become now
State of death only waiting to return
Vital signs that show I'm dead
This can't happen, I'm rising from my own grave
Hunger grows not nutritional but instinctual
Flesh becomes my only crave of this live
Unthinking state, a state of metamorphosis

Seeking food to keep me dead

Degenerate, a product of man's frustration for his error

Insatiable hunger for mankind, building with each kill

Seeking human victims to meet my fill

Cannibal I've become, what's happened to my brain

Feast on the corpse, suck out his brain

As its fluids drip down the drain

Chew on the bones, drink from its bladder

The vile stench only makes me madder

In through the mouth, out the forehead

Brains fall out, skin turns red

Violent surge, a spear through the skull

Felt the urge, now my heart's full

I crave gore, I'll eat your guts

I love gore, blood drives me nuts

I drink blood, I don't like water

Intestines my cud, I feast in the slaughter

Twist its neck, make it crack

Suicide, the only way to avoid being eaten by the
undead

Grave yards coming alive with zombies, hungry for
living flesh

Psychotic, transmuted corpses, upsurging the

Sickening disaster of epidemic proportions, devouring
us

Blood I want to drink, I want to suck

Brains I want to eat, the rest I'll chuck

Bones into a spear, I'll carve and kill

Hunger for the quest, I'll never fill

Blood I want to drink, I want to suck

Brains I want to eat, the rest I'll chuck

Bones into a spear, I'll carve and kill

Hunger for the quest, I'll never fill

I crave gore, I'll eat your guts
