Watching you go by my window
you are going out tonight, i hope he treats you right.

Loosing my mind I am jealous pretending that it's me the one who is meant to be.

It hurts to see you leaving with another, yeah it stopedd my heart for breaking. I need you here with me.

Save me tonight the lights are running I'll be waiting
show me your sign, too sorry cause tonight its dating.
I know I am trying to convince you, don't fall in love
until I kiss you
The sun is not coming up the door when i can see your shadow.

Walking down every morning, haha.
I know you are seeing me stare it's hard to look away.
Ohh how can i make you notice all that you mean to me, when you don't even know my name.

It hurts to see you falling for another, it stopped my heart of breaking I need you here with me.

Save me tonight the lights are running I'll be waiting
show me your sign, too sorry cause tonight it's dating
I know I am trying to convince you, don't fall in love
until i kiss you
the sun is not coming up the door...

I close my eyes and dream you are running to my arms and everything is alright (is alright).

Save me tonight the lights are running I'll be waiting, show me your sign too sorry cause tonight is dating, I know I am trying to convince you don't fall in love until I kiss you. The sun is not coming up the door...

Save me tonight the lights are running I'll be waiting waiting show me your sign too sorry cause tonight is dating, I know I am trying to convince you don't fall in love until I kiss you. The sun is not coming up the door but I can see your shadow.
