so you think that you have seen her When you're lying in between her can you tell me that you don't care busy bodies getting nowhere everybody's getting meaner busy bodies caught in the cards between her you check her outline, break her regulations you watch her legs through several service stations busy bodies, very busy, getting nowhere now you're ready for a merger with a company you're part of you do the dirty business with your latest sleeping partner you're becoming automatic busy bodies out playing with the traffic you want attention you try my patience with the best intentions you were nothing but a nuisance busy bodies, busy, busy, getting nowhere now you've given your performance though the matinee was idle though you find out you have a way with your right hand could seem so

Just a second's satisfaction busy bodies never really out of action you wash and brush up you watch her dress up you want to kiss her but she's busy with her make-up
