there's a smart young woman on a light blue screen who comes into my house every night
she takes all the red, yellow, orange and green and she turns them into black and white

CHORUS:

but you tease you flirt and you shine all the buttons on your green shirt you can please yourself but somebody's gonna get it better cut off all identifying labels before they put you on the torture table 'cause somewhere in the quisling clinic there's a short time typist taking seconds over minutes she's listening in to the venus line she's picking out name I hope none of them are mine

never said I was a stool pigeon I never said I was a diplomat everybody is under suspicion but you don't want to hear about that

better send the begging letter to the big investigation who put these fingerprints on my imagination
