Now that you set everybody free
What are you going to do about me?
Don't want to be treated like some poor grateful clown I'd rather go back to the sweet underground
Where I can tell by the colour of my skin And I know my neighbour 'cos he's the one, yes he's the one Who always turns me in

A woman works the tunnel in the middle of the night Picking up every lost object in sight
Handbags, toupees, lost legs and fingernails
The black market eats up all your failures
Her transistor offers no salvation or regrets
No pool, no pets, no cigarettes
Just non-stop Disco Tex and the Sex-o-lettes

CHORUS

There's no name, no name for the place or pain we'll cause you again and again
If you do not co-operate with the Invasion Hit Parade

The liberation forces make movies of their own Playing their "Doors" records and pretending to be stoned Drowning out a broadcast that wasn't authorised Incidentally the revolution will be televised With one head for business and another for good looks Until they started arriving with their rubber aprons and their butcher's hooks

CHORUS

They're hunting us down here with Liberty's light
A handshaking double talking procession of the mighty Pursued by a T.V. crew and coming after them A limousine of singing stars and their brotherhood anthem
The former dictator was impeccably behaved

They're mopping up all the stubborn ones who just refuse to be saved
