somewhere in the distance I can hear who shot sam this is my conviction that I am an innocent man oh you say I'm unkind I'm being as nice as I can

CHORUS:

boys everywhere fumbling with the catches I struck lucky with motel matches falling for you without a second look falling out of your open pocket book giving you away like motel matches

I wake with the siren of an emergency though your mind is full of love in your eyes there is a big conceit and you know what I do when the light outside changes from red to blue
