The girl
May smile the way you do
And touch me like you do
But still she won't be you to me
The world
May turn the way it does
But I won't be in love
The way that I am now with you
Oh - it was tangled in your words
Oh- but goodbye was all I heard
All I heard...
And I will cry if you walk away
Wonder why if you walk away
Did i gibe too much too soon
What a bitter price to pay
For what are tears if you walk away
Days are years if you walk away
You will take my heart from me
If you walk away...
So girl
If there was something wrong
You held it into long
Cause now this fool belongs to you
Oh girl
If you give me one more day
I'll find something new to say
Some seet lie to make you stay with me
Now I know
You are tied up in your doubt
But don't go
Cause I still believe
That we can work it out...
And I will cry if you walk away
Wonder why if you walk away
Did I give too much too soon
What a bitter price to pay
For what are tears if you walk away?
Days are years if you walk away
You will take my heart with you
If you walk away
Stay, Baby

I'll find some line
To make you stay..
Now I know
You are tied up in your doubt
But don't go
Ain't too proud to beg you
Please don't leave
Cause I believe
We can work it out
And I will cry if you walk away
Wonder why if you walk away
Did I give too much too soon
What a bitter price to pay
For what are tears if you walk away?
Days are years if you walk away
You will take my heart with you
If you walk away..
The girl
May smile the way you do
And touch me like you do
But still she won't be you to me...
Days are years if you walk away
