what's wrong with my mind
my rage is building all the time there's something I can't find something inside me must break free I'm trapped in a corner inside my mind and I can't get out can somebody tell me what's happening to me what's broken in me trapped in a cage and I can't break free I fear the madness inside me the pressure's building every day I hope the feeling will go away I can't break free from my pain the pressure is driving me insane I must get out
I can't get out
what's wrong with my mind
my rage is building all the time
