There is nothing I can say that hasn't been said before but some things are still worth repeating

There is nowhere I can go that no one else has been but some things are still worth seeing

There is nothing sacred anymore that doesn't mean you have to stop believing

Try to bridge the gap between love and war

Why fight when there's no cause worth dieing for

All you see are enemies but I see no reason to destroy anyone for what they believe

You can't cleanse the world of everyone different than you

The more you try to force your will the less they'll think like you

You don't want to get along

You kill for no reason

All you do is condemn them for what they believe
