How can you kill and call it freedom

You stake claim to the war on terror and your first strike is shock and awe

You work so hard to reduce our rights and you say you're keeping us free

You bend the laws and spy on us, you look like the terrorist to me

How can you kill and call it liberty

Tax dollars for gun fodder

Empty shells that were used to kill No honor heavenly father

No honor shine your light away from me

You sit back and close your eyes while the death and destruction fills our lives

You turn your back on your own people and you wonder why they don't trust

Is that the freedom, the kind of freedom, is that the freedom, the kind of freedom you want
